

2022 Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) Report

The Connecticut Judicial Branch is subject to the standards set forth in the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA), 34 U.S.C. § 30301, et seq. PREA established federal requirements for the prevention, detection and response to sexual abuse and sexual harassment in confinement facilities. The PREA standards for lockups, juvenile facilities and community confinement facilities are all applicable to the Judicial Branch.

The Connecticut Judicial Branch has lockups in 33 courthouses that are overseen by Judicial Marshal Services.

The Judicial Branch operates two juvenile residential centers located in Bridgeport and Hartford run by the Court Support Services Division (CSSD) Juvenile Residential Services.

The Judicial Branch also contracts with adult and juvenile providers throughout the state to provide residentially-based services for individuals in need of supervision, substance abuse treatment, mental health treatment, and housing services.

The Connecticut Judicial Branch is committed to meeting its requirements under the Prison Rape Elimination Act. When individuals are placed in the custody of the Judicial Branch, the Judicial Branch has an obligation to keep them safe and free from all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment. The Judicial Branch must be accountable to those individuals. They have the right to be held in an environment where sexual abuse and sexual harassment will not be tolerated; and if it does occur, appropriate remedial steps will be taken to prevent it from happening in the future.

Individuals in the custody of the Judicial Branch are entitled to have access to justice. Their status as a confined individual must not interfere with that. All individuals who utilize the court system must have confidence that they will be treated fairly and with respect. Complying with the PREA standards helps to ensure that.

Judicial Branch Progress in Addressing the PREA Standards

The Connecticut Judicial Branch continued to implement the PREA standards during the course of 2022. In 2022, the following actions took place:

- Conducted on-site PREA audits of juvenile residential centers, courthouse lockups, contracted juvenile and adult community residential programs
- Two contracted Judicial Branch juvenile residential programs successfully passed their PREA audits conducted by a DOJ-certified PREA auditor
- Three contracted Judicial Branch adult residential programs successfully passed their PREA audits conducted by a DOJ-certified PREA auditor
- PREA Training for Trainers conducted for twelve Juvenile Residential Services and contracted juvenile residential program staff
- Annual Juvenile Residential Services in-service PREA trainings conducted for 227 Juvenile Residential Services staff
- Juvenile Residential Services Health Services staff received the following training: Medical providers – 21 staff completed annual PREA training; Mental Health providers – 21 staff completed annual PREA training and 12 staff completed Specialized PREA training; Dental providers – 8 staff completed annual PREA training
- Delivered initial PREA training to 120 new Judicial Marshals
- Provided refresher PREA information to all Judicial Marshals

In the coming year, the Judicial Branch will be focusing on the following tasks:

- Continue conducting on-site PREA audits of juvenile residential centers, courthouse lockups, contracted juvenile and adult community residential programs
- Secure Department of Justice certified auditor for juvenile residential center audits
- Review and update Judicial Branch PREA brochure

Judicial Marshal Services¹

Judicial Marshal Services is responsible for courthouse security and the transportation and custody of prisoners. Judicial Marshals oversee lockups in 33 courthouses throughout the state. These lockups are subject to the PREA Lockup Standards.²

In 2022, over 54,000 individuals were in the custody of Judicial Marshal Services.

In 2022, there were seven reported instances of sexual abuse in Judicial Branch lockups. Six of the reported incidents were determined to be unfounded. One reported incident is still being investigated at the time of drafting this report. There were no reported incidents of sexual harassment in Judicial Branch lockups.

In 2022, there were five reports of sexual abuse or sexual harassment that were reported to Judicial Marshals that occurred at confinement facilities not under the control of Judicial Marshal Services. In those cases, the Judicial Marshal Services' PREA Coordinator contacted the agency's PREA Coordinator or the highest ranking officer at the location where the alleged incident occurred to inform them of the allegation.

In 2022, there was one reported incident of sexual abuse occurring within a Department of Correction facility that was referenced in a habeas petition filed with the Judicial Branch. In addition, the Judicial Branch received one email regarding conduct that occurred at a Department of Correction facility. In each instance, the Department of Correction's PREA Coordinator was notified.

Since the Judicial Branch began implementing the PREA standards in 2013, there have been very few reported incidents. During that time, there have only been two reported incidents that were substantiated. In one case, the staff member involved was disciplined. In the other case, the staff member resigned before discipline could be imposed.

¹For purposes of this report, the following definitions are applicable:

Substantiated allegation means an allegation that was investigated and determined to have occurred.

Unfounded allegation means an allegation that was investigated and determined not to have occurred.

Unsubstantiated allegation means an allegation that was investigated and the investigation produced insufficient evidence to make a final determination as to whether or not the event occurred.

28 C.F.R. §115.5.

²The courthouse lockups overseen by Judicial Marshal Services do not hold individuals overnight. Accordingly, they are not audited by DOJ-certified PREA auditors. PREA Lockup standard 28 C.F.R. §115.193.

Juvenile Residential Services³

Juvenile Residential Services oversees two juvenile residential centers that are American Correctional Association (ACA) and National Commission on Correctional Health Care (NCCHC) accredited. These centers are subject to the PREA Juvenile Facility Standards.
