

This notice is concerning the case of: SMITH, SUSAN M. VS. MANAFORT, JAMES A.

Docket Number: HHB FA 88 0432383

The Court (Judge Pittman) on its own motion has moved to make the following available to the public in the case shown above:

1. The docket sheet - This includes the names of the parties, the docket number that identifies the case, the court location of the case, the names and addresses of counsel and of pro se litigants, the list of motions and actions taken, the dates of filing, the names of the judges or magistrates that acted on the motions, and whether a plaintiff or defendant filed the motion.

2. The Motion to Seal the file or its equivalent (if a written motion is in the file) – This document may have been filed by one of the parties asking that the file be sealed. The Court may order that certain information in the motion be removed prior to making it available to the public if it determines that the information is entitled to remain confidential.

If you object to the Court's motion, please submit an objection form indicating the reasons for your objection. Your objection will remain confidential so long as the file itself remains sealed.

THIS IS THE ONLY NOTICE YOU WILL RECEIVE OF THE DATE AND TIME OF THE HEARING.

If no objection is filed, the Court will review the file on the date of the hearing to determine whether the legitimate privacy interests of the parties or subjects of the litigation would outweigh the public's interest in disclosure. If the public interest in disclosure outweighs the privacy interests, then the Court may order that the information be made available to the public. The court may also order that certain information in the motion to seal and/or the order to seal be removed prior to making them available to the public if it determines that the information should remain confidential.
