PRESS ADVISORY:

Judicial Branch Website Offers New Option for Automatic E-mail Updates

Users of the Judicial Branch website may now sign up to receive automatic e-mail updates when activity has occurred in any civil or family case that has public information available on the website.

The new feature will make it easier to track developments in cases and benefit the public, media and attorneys. Activities that will trigger an automatic e-mail update include: the filing of a document; the entry of an order; the scheduling of a case on the short calendar; or the scheduling of a case event, such as a pretrial, status conference or hearing. One e-mail update for all activity that happened on the case that day will be sent.

Please note that users may not subscribe for, or receive, updates for any case that is sealed; is not viewable on the Internet because of ongoing jury selection and trial; falls under certain restrictions imposed by the Violence Against Women Act; or is no longer available on the website in accordance with the Judicial Branch's web retention policy.
