Judicial Branch E-Services - (Electronic Services)

E-Services allows attorneys and self-represented parties to do business with the Judicial Branch electronically. For more information on what you can do electronically through E-Services, click here.

You should review the Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services which apply to all Judicial Branch electronic services. The Procedures and Technical Standards have rules that apply to E-Services, filing by fax (facsimile), e-filing and short calendar markings. For appellate matters, please review the Procedures and Technical Standards for Appellate E-Filing.

Welcome to E-Services. The links on the left side of this page show the electronic services available to self-represented parties. For more information on what you can do electronically through E-Services, click here.

Effective Monday July 3, 2023 at 8:00 a.m., Centralized Small Claims E-Filing for executions is no longer available.

All Centralized Small Claims executions (for cases filed prior to 10/13/2017 that have not already been transferred to a Judicial District or Housing Session location) must be filed on paper at the appropriate Judicial District or Housing Session location clerk's office. For information on where to file go to the Where to File Small Claims and Small Claims Housing page.

For case-specific electronic services, choose Superior Court E-Filing - Civil/Family/Housing/Small Claims.

To view court notices, choose E-Services Inbox.

For other electronic services, choose one of the options listed on the menu bar on the left side of this page.

For more information on E-Services, please visit the E-Services Welcome Page.

Filers should review the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services which apply to all electronic services offered by the Judicial Branch. Specific procedures that apply to E-Services, Facsimile Filing, e-filing and short calendar markings are contained in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards.

Specific procedures that apply to Appellate E-Filing are contained in the Appellate Procedures and Technical Standards.
