There is no charge for enrollment in E-Services.

To find out if your case is electronic (paperless) or electronically filable, please go to the Procedures and Technical Standards or the Frequently Asked Questions.

Request Electronic Access to Superior Court E-Filable Cases

If you are the person who is filing a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically through Superior Court E-Filing (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case. Once you have electronic access to the case, you can look at and file documents on-line and you can mark short calendar matters on-line.

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 17 6051245 or HHD FA 16 5061789 are paperless.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to be approved for electronic access to your civil or family case.

To request electronic access to an e-filable civil, family or housing case, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password
2. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
3. Go to the Superior Court E-Filing page
4. Go to the case that you are a party in and want to have access to
5. Choose Request Electronic Access on the case detail page for the case
6. Fill out the request form
7. Print the request form
8. Bring the form that you print out and photo identification, like a driver's license, a passport or another government ID, to the Clerk's Office of the court where the case is located; or
Mail the form and a notarized copy of the photo identification to the Clerk's Office of the court where the case is located. The notary language and signature must be on the copy of the photo identification.
9. The clerk will make sure that you are the person who is the party in the case. If you are, the clerk will give you electronic access to the file. If the identification you give the clerk is not enough to show that you are the person in the case, the clerk cannot give you electronic access to the file.
10. The clerk will send you an e-mail about your access request once it is acted on.

File a New Civil Case Electronically in the Superior Court

You can file most types of civil, housing, small claims and family cases electronically (on-line). You can find a list of the types of cases that you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. You cannot file any type of case on-line if you are not paying the entry fee because the court granted your application for a fee waiver.

If you have not enrolled in E-Services yet, stop here. Before you can file a new case on-line, you must fill out and submit the enrollment application to set up your User ID and password, and make your account active. Then you can log in to E-Services.

Every case is different and the information in this manual is general. You should use the information as a guide only; if you think you need more help with your case, you may want to get an attorney. You can also go to a Court Service Center or contact the Connecticut Network for Legal Aid or find additional information at the Law Libraries.

To file a new case on-line, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password
2. Prepare the summons and complaint that you will have served on the defendant
3. Personally go to the clerk's office to have the summons signed by the clerk
4. Give the paperwork to a state marshal to have it served
5. Scan the original papers that have been served and returned to you by the state marshal into three separate PDF documents
6. Save the PDF documents on your computer
7. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
8. Choose Superior Court E-Filing
9. Choose E-file a New Case
10. Enter the information on the case type into the system
11. Enter the information from your summons about the case, the court, and the parties in the case into the system
12. Browse and attach the PDF documents of the summons, the complaint and the marshal's return of service
13. Review the information that you have entered and the documents that you have attached
14. Enter your User ID to certify that the documents that you have attached are true copies of what the marshal served on the defendant
15. Pay the entry fee using a Discover, Visa, MasterCard or American Express credit card
16. Print the confirmation page that gives you the information on what you filed with the court

Instructions and pictures to tell you how to file a new case on-line

You must fill out your summons and complaint and any other documents that you will have the marshal serve on the defendants. Once you have filled out this paperwork, you must personally take it to the Superior Court Clerk's Office. The Clerk will sign the summons, and return the signed original summons and complaint to you. You then give the original summons and complaint to a state marshal, who serves the papers and gives the original documents back to you along with a return of service. When the marshal returns the documents to you, you can scan them to convert the summons, the complaint and the marshal's return into three separate PDF documents. If you are suing more than four defendants, you will also have an "Additional Parties Page" to file. You must scan and convert the "additional parties page" as a separate PDF document. You can electronically file PDF documents only.

Note: Some case types may require you to include other types of documents such as an application or an order for hearing and notice, or you may need to file documents before they are served on the defendant. This manual does not talk about how to file these case types.

Instructions and pictures to tell you how to file a new case on-line

You must fill out your summons and complaint and any other documents that you will have the marshal serve on the defendants. Once you have filled out this paperwork, you must personally take it to the Superior Court Clerk's Office. The Clerk will sign the summons, and return the signed original summons and complaint to you. You then give the original summons and complaint and any other documents to a state marshal, who serves the papers and gives the original documents back to you along with a return of service. When the marshal returns the documents to you, you can scan them to convert the summons, the complaint and the marshal's return into three separate PDF documents. If you are suing more than four defendants, you will also have an "Additional Parties Page" to file. You must scan and convert the "additional parties page" as a separate PDF document. You can electronically file PDF documents only. You may also have a notice to quit, which can be filed as a separate PDF document.

Note: Some case types may require you to include other types of documents such as an application or an order for hearing and notice, or you may need to file documents before they are served on the defendant. This manual does not talk about how to file these case types.

File a New Family Case Electronically in the Superior Court

You can file most family case types electronically (on-line), including dissolution of marriage (divorce); legal separation; annulment; and civil union - dissolution, legal separation or annulment, custody application, and visitation petition. You can find a complete list of the types of cases that you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. You cannot file any type of family case on-line if you are not paying the entry fee because the court granted your application for a fee waiver.

If you have not enrolled in E-Services yet, stop here. Before you can file a new case on-line, you must fill out and submit the enrollment application to set up your User ID and password, and make your account active. Then you can log in to E-Services.

Every case is different and the information in this manual is general. You should use the information as a guide only; if you think you need more help with your case, you may want to get an attorney. Instructions and pictures to tell you how to file a new case on-line

You must fill out your summons, complaint, notice of automatic court orders, and any other documents that you will have the marshal serve on the defendant. Once you have filled out this paperwork, you must personally take it to the Superior Court Clerk's Office. The Clerk will sign the summons, and return the signed original summons, complaint, notice of automatic court orders and any other documents to you. You then give the original summons, complaint, notice of automatic court orders and any other applicable documents to a state marshal, who serves the papers and gives the original documents back to you along with a return of service. When the marshal returns the documents to you, you can scan them to convert the summons, complaint, notice of automatic court orders, and the marshal's return into four separate PDF documents. If you have had the marshal serve a pendente lite motion, such as a motion for alimony or support pendente lite (before a judgment), you must scan the motion to convert it into a separate PDF document, which you will file in your new case after you file it. You can electronically file PDF documents only.

You can find the telephone number for the court at the following link: <http://www.jud.ct.gov/directory/directory/location/Default.htm>.

File a New Small Claims Case Electronically

You can file a new small claims case electronically (on-line). You can find a list of the types of cases that you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. You cannot file any type of case on-line if you are not paying the entry fee because the court granted your application for a fee waiver. The case must be filed on paper with the appropriate clerk's office.

If you are a self-represented party and have not enrolled in E-Services yet, stop now. Before you can file a new case on-line, you must fill out and submit the enrollment application to set up your User ID and password, and make your account active. Then you can log in to E-Services.

Every case is different and the information in this manual is general. You should use the information as a guide only; if you think you need more help with your case, you may want to get an attorney. You can also go to a Court Service Center or contact the Connecticut Network for Legal Aid or find additional information at the Law Libraries.

To file a new small claims case on-line, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password
2. Prepare the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit (JD-CV-40) that you will have served on the defendant(s)

Note: Your oath must be taken by the Clerk, a Notary, or a Commissioner of the Superior Court at the time you sign the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit before you serve it.

3. Have the completed and signed form, the Instructions to the Defendant (JD-CV-122) and any related documents you want to file with the court delivered to the defendant(s) (served).
4. Scan the original papers that have been served, the Statement of Service (JD-CV-123) and the delivery confirmation, signed return receipt or return of service.
5. Save the PDF documents on your computer
6. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
7. Choose Superior Court E-Filing Small Claims
8. Choose E-file a New Case
9. Select the type of case you are filing from the Case Type dropdown
10. Enter the information from your Small Claims Writ about the case, the court, and the parties in the case into the system
11. Browse and attach the PDF documents.
12. Review the information that you have entered and the documents that you have attached
13. Enter your User ID to certify that the documents that you have attached are true copies of what was delivered to the defendant (served)
14. Pay the entry fee using a Discover, Visa, MasterCard or American Express credit card
15. Print the confirmation page that gives you the information on what you filed with the court

Instructions and pictures to tell you how to file a new case on-line

You must fill out the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit (JD-CV-40) and any other documents that you will serve or have served on the defendants. Once you have filled out this paperwork, you must sign it in front of the Clerk, a Notary, or a Commissioner of the Superior Court, who will take your oath at the time you sign the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit. You must then serve (deliver to each defendant) a copy of the original signed Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit, Instructions to Defendant and any other documents by one of the methods described in the How To Serve A Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit (JD-CV-122).

When you have the delivery confirmation, return receipts, or return of service, you can scan the documents to convert the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit and the Instructions to Defendant into a single PDF, the Statement of Service (JD-CV-123) and the delivery confirmation or signed, return receipts as another PDF, and any other documents, such as an affidavit of debt, a contract or a lease as separate PDF documents. If you are suing more than two defendants, you will also have Continuation of Parties form (JD-CV-67) to file. You must scan and convert that completed form as a separate PDF document. You can electronically file PDF documents only.

File Your Appearance (All Cases) Electronically

If you are the person who filed a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically with the Superior Court/small claims session (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper, or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case. (See the section in this manual on requesting electronic access.) Once you have electronic access to the case, you can file your document on-line. If you don't have electronic access to your case, you can only file your document on paper with the clerk of the court where your case is located.

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services.

An appearance form is a system-populated form so if you are already enrolled filing the appearance form electronically, you don't have to fill out the form (JD-CL-12) yourself. The e-filing system will automatically fill it with the information you gave when you enrolled, but if the information from your enrollment has changed, you can change what the system automatically fills in on the appearance form. You should also change it on your E-Services account. You must also provide some additional information to complete the form.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to file an appearance electronically.

6. Go to the main page (case detail page) for your case

14. You will now see the Select Pleading/Motion/Other page.

Note: This page allows you to choose the name for the pleading, motion or document that you are filing. You must choose the correct name because the name that you choose will make the document you file go to the file, be placed on a short calendar or not, depending upon whether it is a motion or pleading that should go on a short calendar. The name also tells other people, including the Judge, other self-represented parties and the attorneys in your case, what you are filing. It is very important that you name your document correctly when you create it and it is also very important that you choose the correct name for your document on this page.

23. When you find the name, choose Select to go to the next page and add additional information. You can choose one of the other buttons to go to a different case or cancel this filing.

Note: You file some documents by creating them in your word processing system. The document you are typing could be a fillable form from the Judicial Branch website, or you can create your own document. You must convert any fillable form or any document you create to a PDF document.

On the signature lines of your document, you can put your User ID, your typed name, or a pen-to-paper signature. You sign a document that you file electronically by entering your User ID in the signature field in the e-filing system.

You file other documents by providing information when you are in the e-filing system. The e-filing system will then fill out the form for you. These documents are called system-populated forms. They are: Reclaims, Jury Claims, Certificates of Closed Pleadings, Appearances, Motions for Continuance, and Withdrawals of all kinds, except Withdrawals of Appearance. For these pleadings or motions, you must fill in the required fields. The document will be created for you by the e-filing system.

Note: Certain documents must be signed pen-to-paper before they are scanned and saved as a PDF document for filing. Those documents include an affidavit, a financial affidavit, any agreement signed by more than one party and a return of service.

In this example, a fillable PDF form from the Judicial Branch website (JD-FM-176 – Motion for Orders before Judgment (Pendente Lite) in Family Cases) was used and then saved to a folder on the computer.

24. The party you are filing the document for will already be displayed.
25. Check to be sure that you have selected the case you want to file in
26. Check that you have selected the correct name for your document
27. Enter an additional description of your document.

The screenshot shows a step in the e-filing process. At the top, there are fields for Case Number (HHB-FA14-6023671-S), Plaintiff (PETRIE, LAURA M. v. PETRIE, ROBERT S.), and other case details. Below these, a red arrow points to a section titled 'Pleading/Motion/Other documents will be filed on behalf of the following party'. It lists 'P-01 LAURA M. PETRIE'. Underneath, another red box highlights the 'You have selected the following Pleading/Motion/Other:' section, which contains 'MOTION FOR ALIMONY, CUSTODY OF MINOR CHILDREN AND CHILD SUPPORT PENDENTE LITE'. At the bottom, there is an 'Additional Description' field with the text 'Motion for alimony, custody of minor children and child support pendente lite'.

Note: The additional description gives information that helps the Judge on the bench, attorneys and other self-represented parties, and the court staff. It is also required by the revised Procedures and Technical Standards of E-Services. The information you enter in the additional description field will appear on the case detail screen under the name of the motion you are filing.

The use of offensive or inappropriate language in the additional description field is not permitted.

Use the additional description area to give information that is important and related to what you are filing:

- Give the name and entry number of the motion you are objecting to (#110 – Motion to Compel);
- Give the name and entry number of the pleading you are filing a memorandum to support or oppose (#103 – Motion to Dismiss);
- Give the entry numbers of any other pleadings that are relevant to the document being filed

File an Execution Electronically in a Small Claims Case

If you are the person who filed a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically in the Superior Court or small claims session (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper, or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case before you can file or view documents electronically. (See the section on requesting electronic access.)

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

1. For cases initiated prior to October 16, 2017 (pending and post-judgment cases) that have not been transferred to the small claims docket in the appropriate judicial district or housing session location, if you are filing electronically, you must file any Application for Execution (Wage, Property and Financial Institution), Execution Refiled as Corrected-No Fee, Return of Execution (satisfied, partially satisfied, unsatisfied), Affidavit of Lost Execution or Execution Returned Unserved through Centralized Small Claims E-Filing, using the small claims docket number (SCC 123654 or SCAH 164532). Once an execution (or other document) is filed, the case will be transferred to the small claims docket in the appropriate judicial district or housing session location and assigned a new docket number. Thereafter, all subsequent documents must be filed electronically through Superior Court E-Filing, using the new docket number.
2. If you are filing an execution (or any other document) on paper in a case that has not been transferred and assigned a new docket number, you must file the execution with the clerk of the appropriate judicial district or housing session location. Once the execution is filed, the case will be transferred to the small claims docket in the appropriate judicial district or housing session location and assigned a new docket number, and all subsequent documents must be filed using the new docket number.
3. For cases initiated on and after October 16, 2017 and for pending and post-judgment cases that have been transferred to the appropriate judicial district or housing session location and assigned new docket number, executions (and any other documents) must be filed electronically through Superior Court E-Filing by attorneys and law firms without an exclusion from electronic services. If an execution (or any other document) is filed electronically by a self-represented party, it must be filed through Superior Court E-filing.

Note: For pending and post-judgment cases that have been transferred to the small claims docket in the judicial district or housing session location and assigned a new docket number, the filer must use the newly-assigned Superior Court docket number.

You can ask for electronic access to your e-filable civil/housing and family case so you can file documents, look at documents filed in your case, and mark your short calendar matters electronically. Almost all civil, housing and family case types are e-filable.

You can see a list of cases you have requested electronic access to and cases you have been given electronic access to on this page.

You can find out more about the links on the left side of the page by clicking here.

Log out of E-Services when you have finished what you are doing to protect your privacy. If you don't use the mouse or the keyboard for 30 minutes, the system will show a message asking you if you want to log off or stay logged in. If you don't pick either choice, the system logs you out after 60 seconds. If you are in the middle of filing something and the system logs you out, you will lose any information you have entered, and you will have to start your filing from the beginning.

18. Choose Select next to Application for Execution-Wages (JD-CV-3) to go to the next page to upload the document you are filing.

Note: You file some documents by creating them in your word processing system. The document you are creating to e-file could be a fillable form from the Judicial Branch website, or you can create your own document. You must convert any fillable form or any document you create to a PDF document.

On the signature lines of your document, you can put your User ID, your typed name, or a pen-to-paper signature. You sign a document that you file electronically by entering your User ID in the signature field in the e-filing system.

You file other documents by providing information when you are in the e-filing system. The e-filing system will then fill out the form for you. These documents are called system-populated forms. They are: Reclaims, Jury Claims, Certificates of Closed Pleadings, Appearances, Motions for Continuance, and Withdrawals of all kinds, except Withdrawals of Appearance. For these pleadings or motions, you must fill in the required fields. The document will be created for you by the e-filing system.

Note: Certain documents must be signed pen-to-paper before they are scanned and saved as a PDF document for filing. Those documents include an affidavit, a financial affidavit, any agreement signed by more than one party and a return of service.

In this example, a fillable PDF form from the Judicial Branch website, Application for Execution-Wages (JD-CV-3) was filled in and then saved to a folder on the computer.

File a System-Populated Document Electronically (All Cases)

If you are the person who filed a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically with the Superior Court/small claims session (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper, or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case. (See the section in this manual on requesting electronic access.) Once you have electronic access to the case, you can file your document on-line. If you don't have electronic access to your case, you can only file your document on paper with the clerk of the court where your case is located.

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

A system-populated form is filled out by the e-filing system using information that is already in the e-filing system. You give some additional information and then the system shows you the completed form to look over before you e-file it. E-filing has six system-populated forms: appearances, certificate of closed pleadings, jury claim, motion for continuance, reclaim, and withdrawal of all kinds, except withdrawal of appearance.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to file a system-populated document electronically.

To file a system-populated document on-line in a case, you must:

2. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password to request electronic access if you do not already have electronic access to your case

11. Sign your motion and certification by entering your User ID

If the case name and docket number do not appear in your list of cases on this page,

The cases listed on this page are the cases that you have requested electronic access to or cases for which your electronic access has already been approved. If you have not requested and been approved for electronic access to a case, you cannot file on-line in that case.

To ask for electronic access to a case, you must go to the case detail page of the case by entering the docket number or a party name. On the case detail page, you must select Request Electronic Access, fill out and print the request form and take the form and an acceptable form of photo identification to the clerk's office at the court where the case is located.

You can get more information about requesting electronic access on the E-Services Welcome page under the Self-represented Parties tab or in the E-Filing Manual for Civil, Family, Housing and Small Claims Matters – A Guide for Self-Represented Parties.

10. Click the docket number of the case shown in the list at the bottom of the page
11. You will go to the case detail page for the case
12. Select E-File a Pleading or Motion and click Go

The screenshot shows a web-based case detail page. At the top, it displays case information: AAN-FA14-6015220-S, ADDAMS, MORTICIA FRUMP v. ADDAMS, GOMEZ, Case Type: F00, File Date: 08/22/2014, and Return Date: 09/30/2014. Below this is a navigation menu with tabs: Case Detail, Notices, History, Processing, Scheduled Court Dates, and Self-rep Help Manual. A link to "To receive an email when there is activity on this case, click here" is present. A "Select Case Activity" dropdown menu is open, showing three options: "E-File an Appearance", "E-File a Pleading or Motion" (which is highlighted with a red box), and "E-File a Reclaim". Below the dropdown, a message says "Information updated as of: 08/27/2014". A "Case Information" section follows, containing details like Case Type: F00 - Family - Dissolution of Marriage - C.G.S. Chapter 815j, Court Location: MILFORD, and various dispute status indicators. At the bottom of the page is a "Disposition Information" section.

13. You will now see the Select Pleading/Motion/Other page.

Note: This page allows you to choose the name for the pleading, motion or document that you are filing. You must choose the correct name because the name that you choose will make the document you file go to the file, as well as be placed on the short calendar or not, depending on whether it is a motion or pleading that should go on a short calendar. The name also tells other people, including the Judge, other self-represented parties and attorneys in your case, what you are filing. It is very important that you name your document correctly when you create it and it is also very important that you choose the correct name for your document on this page. In this example, the document being filed is a system-populated form.

File a Reclaim Electronically

If you are the person who filed a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically in the Superior Court or small claims session (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper, or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case. (See the section on requesting electronic access.) Once you have electronic access to the case, you can file your motion or other pleading on-line. If you do not have electronic access to your case, you can only file your motion or other pleading on paper with the clerk of the court where your case is located.

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

The reclaim form (JD-CL-6) is a system-populated form. That form is a document that the e-filing system fills out for you based upon the information that is already in the e-filing system, such as the name, case docket number and the names of appearing parties. You must give some additional information and then the system will show you the completed form to look over and e-file. E-filing has six system-populated forms: appearances, certificates of closed pleadings, jury claims, motions for continuance, reclaims, and withdrawals of all kinds, except withdrawals of appearance.

If the information you provided when you enrolled in E-Services has changed, you will be able to change what is automatically filled out on the reclaim form. You should also change it on your E-Services account.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to file a reclaim on-line.

To file a reclaim on-line, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password
2. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password to request electronic access to your case
3. Be approved for electronic access by the clerk of the court
4. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
5. Choose Superior Court E-Filing
6. Go to the main page (case detail page) for your case
7. Choose E-file a Reclaim as your desired case activity
8. Fill in the required information in the system, and if it is filled in for you, make sure the information is correct
9. Sign your reclaim by typing in your User ID
10. Review your reclaim

12. Print the confirmation page that gives you the information on what you filed with the court

The cases listed on this page are the cases that you have requested electronic access to or cases for which your electronic access has already been approved. If you have not requested and been approved for electronic access to a case, you cannot file on-line in that case.

To ask for electronic access to a case, you must go to the case detail page of the case by entering the docket number or a party name. On the case detail page, you must select Request Electronic Access, fill out and print the request form and take the form and an acceptable form of photo identification to the clerk's office at the court where the case is located.

You can get more information about requesting electronic access on the E-Services Welcome page under the Self-represented Parties tab or in the E-Filing Manual for Civil, Family, Housing and Small Claims Matters – A Guide for Self-Represented Parties.

For example, an answer, memorandum of law or a brief does not go on the short calendar. They are in the court file, but the Judge does not have to enter an order on them. They appear on this list but, you will see "Not Claimable" next to them instead of a checkbox. Mark Motions or Objections on the Short Calendar On-line

You can mark short calendar matters in your civil cases or in your e-filable family cases if you have enrolled in E-Services, filed an appearance and been approved for electronic access to your cases. You cannot mark short calendar matters in family cases that are not e-filable. Note: You can find a list of the types of cases that are e-filable in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. On an existing case, you can check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

- You must follow the procedures shown in the Notice section of the short calendar and in the Civil or Family Short Calendar Standing Orders to mark motions or objections.
- You can only mark motions or objections on the short calendar during the specific times (marking periods) shown in the Civil or Family Short Calendar Standing Orders. Note: Marking periods can change if there is a state holiday on a weekday. Check the standing orders if there is a state holiday.

Helpful Hints on Electronic Filing

How do I find a case to file documents or look at documents?

There are four ways to find a case in the e-filing system:

You can go to the case detail page of your case by:

- Clicking on the docket number of a case shown in the list of cases with pending electronic access requests or approval for electronic access;
- Choosing By Docket Number from the list of choices under E-file on an Existing Case on the left menu;
- Choosing By Party Name from the list of choices under E-file on an Existing Case on the left menu; or
- Choosing List My Cases from the list of choices under E-file on an Existing Case on the left menu.
- Choosing a case listed on the Superior Court E-Filing menu

How do I look at documents electronically in my civil case?

1. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
2. Go to the case detail page for your case by using one of the four ways to find a case
3. On the case detail page, scroll down to see the list of documents
4. The title of any electronic document is a link and is followed by a paper icon.

Note: Documents filed on paper in a civil case with a return date of 2009 or earlier are not viewable even if you have an appearance and electronic access, unless they were filed after December 5, 2009. Documents filed after that date in an e-filable case can be seen through E-Services if you have an appearance and electronic access to the case. Paper documents can be viewed at the court where the file is located. Documents in civil cases filed on or after January 1, 2014 and housing cases that are e-filable are viewable on the public Internet site unless otherwise protected by statute or court order.

Documents in family files are not available on the public Internet site.

How do I look at documents electronically in my family case?

1. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
2. Go to the case detail page for your case by using one of the four ways to find a case
3. On the case detail page, scroll down to see the list of documents
4. The name of any electronic document is a link and is followed by a paper icon.

Note: You can only view documents in a family case outside of the courthouse if you have electronic access to the case and you have filed an appearance in the case. Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

Documents in family cases are not available on the public Internet site.

How do I find the name of the motion, pleading, or document I want to file?

By means of the search mechanism

- Use as few words as possible to describe the pleading you wish to find. For example, to find a motion for continuance, type “conti” in in the search area.
- Type only the first three or four letters of a main word in the name of your document in the search area

By means of the categories

- Choose the category of the pleading that you want to file by clicking the down arrow

Note: If you are filing on a housing case, you can select “Housing” as a category to look at a list of the names of the documents people most frequently file in housing cases. If you do not see what you need in that list, you can search using another category or the search mechanism.

- Most categories include documents that contain the main word listed. For example, an Objection to a Request to Revise is found in the Objections category, but the Request to Revise is found in the Requests category. The General category includes most motions, and demand for disclosure of defense, brief, and discovery responses. The Pleadings category contains answers of all kinds, special defenses, and counterclaims.

By using I Need Help

- Choose I Need Help
- Click the down arrow to see different things you might need to ask the court or documents you might need to file.
- Click on one of the options to see a list of the names of the documents people file most frequently when they are trying to do what you are trying to do or ask for what you are asking for.

Note: The “I need help” box does not appear for civil cases.

Note: Be sure to add a further description of any document that you are filing. The revised Procedures and Technical Standards of E-Services requires you to include, in the description field that is provided in the e-filing system, the entry number or numbers of any other documents that are relevant to the document being filed.

How do I fix a mistake I make when I am filing on-line?

The revised Procedures and Technical Standards of E-Services contains a section on corrective measures in e-filing. The most common mistakes and ways to fix them are in this manual.

How do I fix a document that cannot be read on-line?

When a document you filed cannot be read because of a technical problem (readability or legibility errors), you can file a Motion to Substitute Electronic Document. You must attach the "Proposed Document for Substitution" to the motion.

How do I fix a mistake if I file a motion that I did not mean to file?

Choose Withdrawal of Motion from the options in the Withdrawal Category. The withdrawal of motion is created by the e-filing system on the withdrawal form (JD-CV-41). It is a system-populated form. You will be asked to enter the title and entry number of the motion you are withdrawing and the information will appear on the form. You can review the form before you file it.

Note: The document that you filed originally will remain viewable in the file even after you have filed your withdrawal, but no action will be taken on it. You can ask the Court to seal the document if it contains personal identifying information such as a date of birth, account number or social security number by filing a motion under Section 11-20B of the Practice Book. If it is not personal identifying information, you can file a motion to seal for other reasons under Section 11-20A of the Practice Book.

How do I fix a mistake if I file a document (not a motion) that I did not mean to file?

Choose Withdrawal from the options in the Withdrawal Category. The withdrawal is created by the e-filing system on the withdrawal form (JD-CV-41). It is a system-populated form. You must enter the title and entry number of the document you are withdrawing in the additional description area in e-filing. The information you enter in the additional description area will appear on the form. You can review the form before you file it.

Note: The document that you filed originally will remain viewable in the file even after you have filed your withdrawal, but no action will be taken on it. You can ask the Court to seal the document if it contains personal identifying information such as a date of birth, account number or social security number by filing a motion under Section 11-20B of the Practice Book. If it is not personal identifying information, you can file a motion to seal for other reasons under Section 11-20A of the Practice Book.

How do I fix a mistake I made when entering the information from my summons into e-filing?

If you have the correct information in your summons or in your Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit, but you type the information into e-filing incorrectly, you can request that information incorrectly entered electronically at the time you were filing the case be corrected so that it is the same as the information in your summons. You must file either a Request to Conform Case Initiation Data Entry to Summons form (JD-CL-96) (for civil, family or housing matters) or a Request to Conform Case Initiation Data Entry to Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit form (JD-CL-116) (for small claims matters). These forms are available from the Judicial Branch website at: <http://www.jud.ct.gov>. You can use the form to ask that the case type, the return date, or the names of the parties be changed to be the same as the information on the summons or small claims writ and notice of suit that was served.

This request is a fillable form that you must fill in and save as a PDF document, and then file electronically with the title Request to Conform Case Initiation Data Entry to Summons.
