| Administrative appeal; whether defendant State Employees Retirement Commission properly interpreted statutory provision (§ 7-438 [b]) of Municipal Employees' Retirement Act (§ 7-425 et seq.) to bar retired member from collecting pension while he was reemployed by municipality in nonparticipating position; statutory framework of act establishing and governing municipal employees retirement system, discussed; claim that position of mayor of East Haven did not constitute employment and mayor was not employee for purposes of act; claim that § 7-438 (b) evidences legislative intent to preclude member from receiving pension only while reemployed in position designated by town as participating in retirement system; whether statute (§ 7-432 [g]) providing for application to medical examining board for reconsideration of eligibility for disability retirement was applicable to plaintiff's claim; claim that legislature acquiesced in defendant's prior interpretation of act; claim that trial court should have deferred to nonbinding opinion letter of attorney general recommending that defendant not deviate from prior interpretation of act, specifically its interpretation of § 7-438 (b), in absence of further legislative direction. |     |

| Administrative appeal; whether trial court properly dismissed plaintiffs' appeal from decision of defendant siting council granting petition to open and modify certificate for operation of electric generating facility; whether trial court improperly determined that council adequately had considered neighborhood concerns as required by statute (§ 16-50p [c] [1]) in granting petition; statutory construction, discussed; claim that trial court improperly concluded that plaintiffs had abandoned their due process and substantial evidence claims due to inadequate briefing; whether plaintiffs' claim that trial court improperly concluded that plaintiffs had abandoned due process and substantial evidence claims due to inadequate briefing was moot because plaintiffs failed to challenge on appeal trial court's alternative conclusions rejecting those claims on merits.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |

| Marital dissolution; motion for contempt for plaintiff's purported violation of court's automatic orders effective during pendency of dissolution proceeding and appeal from judgment of dissolution on basis of certain stock transactions that plaintiff executed without defendant's consent or court order; certification from Appellate Court; whether Appellate Court incorrectly concluded that trial court improperly had considered, in making its financial orders, plaintiff's violations of automatic orders stemming from his decision to conduct certain stock transactions; whether court may remedy harm caused by another party's violation of court order, even without finding of contempt; claim that trial court's financial award was erroneous because it was excessive and based on improper method for valuing loss to marital estate; whether court had discretion to consider value that stocks and options would have had at time of remand trial; claim, as alternative ground for affirming Appellate Court's judgment, that plaintiff's stock transactions did not violate automatic orders because those transactions were made in usual course of business; whether trial court's conclusion that stock options plaintiff exercised were marital property subject to distribution between parties was clearly erroneous; claim, as alternative ground for affirming Appellate Court's judgment, that trial court's award of retroactive alimony was improper because it purportedly required plaintiff to pay arrearage out his share of marital assets, thereby effectively reducing his share of property distribution. |     |
