The Connecticut Judicial Branch provides, for a fee, publicly available Civil and Family data in bulk for both pending and disposed cases.

The data provided includes:

- Basic Case Information: such as docket number, case type and case name
- Important Case Dates: such as case file date and case return date.
- Party and Appearance Information
- Motion, Pleading and Companion Case Information

Please note the following: No electronic documents are provided and party addresses are only available for self-represented parties.

Upon request, we can provide:

- A document describing all of the data fields that will be provided for each case and the relationships between the data fields.
- A document describing how the data can be accessed and the cost to access the data on a continuous or a one-time basis.

Prepayment of the access fee and the signing of a User Acknowledgement Form are required before access to the bulk data is provided.

Questions regarding any of these documents should be directed to:
