The Connecticut Judicial Branch provides, for a fee, publicly available Criminal data in bulk for both pending and disposed cases.

The data provided includes:

- Case: Docket Number, Arrest Date, Arresting Agency Code, Arresting Agency, Next Hearing Date, Case Status, VOP (recent) Dates, Sentence Modifications (recent) Dates, Charges Sealed Flag
- Defendant: Name, DOB, Address Information, Race, Sex and Operator Information
- Charge: Docket Number, Sequence, Statute information, Offense Information, and Plea Information
- Sentence: Verdict, Fines, Fees, Jail and Probation Information
- PJ Modification: Modified - Verdict, Fines, Fees, Jail and Probation Information

Please Note:

- Cases that are sealed, erased, pardoned, clean slated or otherwise non-disclosable are not included.
- Limited defendant and case information is provided for pending cases where the charges are statutorily sealed.
- Cases disposed of prior to the year 2000, were regularly archived 2 years after completion of their sentence i.e., a case where the sentence was 5 years in jail plus 2 years' probation remained in the system for a minimum of 9 years beyond the disposition date.
- Archived cases are not included. However, some older cases may still be found as they meet the criteria for continued availability.

Prepayment of the access fee and the signing of a User Acknowledgement Form is required before access to the bulk data is provided.
