The Connecticut Judicial Branch provides, for a fee, publicly available Centralized Infractions Bureau data in bulk for both pending and disposed cases.

The data provided includes:

- Basic Case Information: such as case number, category of the infraction and name of person charged
- Important Case Dates: such as ticket issue date and payment date, which becomes the disposition date.

Please note that an infraction is an offense for which the only penalty is a fine. An infraction is not a crime. An infraction may be paid or the defendant may plead Not Guilty by mail. Infractions are described in Connecticut General Statute section 51-164m.

Prepayment of the access fee and the signing of a User Acknowledgement Form is required before access to the bulk data is provided.

Questions regarding any of these documents should be directed to:
