Award Description*
The State of Connecticut Judicial Branch, Office of Victim Services, plans to use Recovery Act VOCA Assistance Formula Grant Program funds to provide funding to subgrantees in the State of Connecticut for community based services to victims and their families, of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, homicide, drunk driving, assault, and other violent crimes. Funds will allow agencies to hire or retain staff for victim services advocacy, mental health counseling, assistance with the court process, crisis counseling, assistance with victim compensation, referral to other social service agencies and other services necessary to assist victims of crime in Connecticut. The Judicial Branch also plans to use a portion of the funds to provide training on issues related to crime victim services.
