Notice to Defendant(s)/Tenant(s)

You may file with the clerk your appearance and an objection to the plaintiff's motion. If you do so within five (5) days of the date the above motion was filed, the court will conduct a hearing on the motion before entering an order for use and occupancy payments. You can find out the date the motion was filed by calling the clerk's office. If you do not file your objection within this five day period, the court will enter an order for use and occupancy payments without a hearing. You will be notified by mail.

You may also file an objection at any time after the five day period has expired, but an order for use and occupancy payments will still enter. A hearing will then be held to determine if the order should remain in effect or be modified.

If you file an objection during or after the five day period, you will be notified by mail of the hearing date and time.

State your reason(s) for objecting in the following space provided. Complete the certification section and make two copies. File the original with the clerk and mail a copy to the landlord or the landlord's attorney if that person has one.

Keep a copy for your records.
