Notice to Defendant

You have been placed in the Supervised Diversionary program until your next scheduled court date on _____.
You are also subject to being supervised by a Probation Officer and you must follow any conditions that are set by the Court Support Services Division concerning your participation in the program including conditions about going to meetings or sessions of the program. You must be in court on _____ unless you are told that you do not have to come to court by your Probation Officer.

During the time you are in the program you must do the following:

1. Do not violate any criminal law of the United States, this state or any other state or territory.
2. Report as the Probation Officer tells you, give your Probation Officer immediate notice if you are arrested and, if you are incarcerated, report to the Probation Officer immediately after you are released.
3. Keep the Probation Officer informed of your whereabouts, give immediate notice of any change to your legal name, address, telephone number, cell phone number, beeper, employment or other circumstances and allow the Officer to visit you as circumstances may require.
4. Submit to any medical and/or mental health and/or substance abuse evaluation and recommended treatment, urinalysis, alcohol and/or drug testing as required by the Court or the Probation Officer.
5. If the Court orders you to make restitution by _____, you must make payments as scheduled by the Court or Probation Officer.
(Date)
6. You must comply with the Court Ordered Special Conditions (listed below):

I have read or have had read to me, and the officer has reviewed with me the conditions of being in the Supervised Diversionary Program and the date of my next court appearance. I understand them and I will follow them.
