Docket number

Date of Conference: _____Time of Conference _____

You are scheduled to appear with your client for a disposition conference on the above date at the time shown. No continuances will be granted except by the presiding judge for compelling reasons only.

Cases not resolved at the conference will be scheduled for trial.

All motions shall be filed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Connecticut Practice Book.

Failure of the defendant or attorney to appear at the disposition conference may result in (1) bond forfeiture, (2) rearrest warrant and/or (3) administrative action.

An attorney who fails to appear on a scheduled date or in any way inexcusably delays a case will be subject to C.G.S. § 51-84:

"Attorneys admitted by the Superior Court shall be attorneys of all courts and shall be subject to the rules and orders of the courts before which they act. Any such court may fine an attorney for transgressing its rules and orders an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars for any offense, and may suspend or displace an attorney for just cause."
