REQUEST TO EXTEND DELAY OF NOTICE FOR ORDER FOR DISCLOSURE OF INTERNET OR PHONE RECORDS

The law enforcement agency listed above has applied to the court for an order to disclose certain telephone or internet records of the subscriber/customer listed above. The court granted this order on _____ at _____.

Section 54-47aa (f) of the Connecticut General Statutes requires that notice of the issuance of an order to disclose telephone or internet records be mailed to the subscriber/customer whose records are the subject of the order no later than 48 hours after the issuance of the order unless otherwise ordered by the court.

As part of the application, the law enforcement agency requested that notice of this order to the subscriber/customer be delayed for the period of _____ and the court granted that request as part of the order to disclose the telephone or internet records.

The law enforcement officer signing below, now asks to extend the delay of notice to the subscriber/customer for the period of _____ because there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of this order may result in: ("X" all that apply)

- ☐ Endangering the life or physical safety of an individual;
- ☐ Flight from prosecution;
- ☐ Destruction of, or tampering with, evidence;
- ☐ Intimidation of potential witnesses; or
- ☐ Otherwise seriously jeopardizing the investigation.

Explain: _____

- ☐ Continued on Application for Ex Parte Order for Disclosure of Phone or Internet Records - Supplement, form JD-CR-176.
