Upon the oath or affidavit of the Prosecutorial Official or Probation Officer, the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that: (Select appropriate box)

Said child has committed the acts alleged in the Petition/Information attached to the application for a Take Into Custody Order, or

Said child has failed to appear for a court hearing, pretrial conference or _____ on _____ after being duly summoned or otherwise ordered by the court to appear, or

Said child has violated one or more of the conditions of release from a juvenile residential center.

The court further finds that one or more of the circumstances indicated below are applicable:

A. There is probable cause to believe that the level of risk the child poses to public safety if released to the community prior to the court hearing or disposition cannot be managed in a less restrictive setting.

B. There is a need to hold the child to ensure the child's appearance before the court or compliance with court process, as demonstrated by the child's previous failure to respond to the court process.

C. There is a need to hold the child for another jurisdiction.

D. A ground for detention does not exist at this time.

And it is further found that there is no appropriate less restrictive alternative available and that the child should be immediately taken into custody and placed in a juvenile residential center. (Select if appropriate)

Said child is ordered not to be released by the Juvenile Residential Center Superintendent or designee.

Order

Application to Take Into Custody denied.

Now, therefore, you are hereby ordered to take the above-named child into custody and deliver the child to the custody of the Juvenile Residential Center Superintendent or designee.

Having found probable cause that said child has absconded, escaped, or run away from a residential facility in which such child has been placed by court order, therefore you are hereby ordered to take the above-named child into custody and deliver the child to the custody of the Juvenile Residential Center Superintendent or designee.
