Name of respondent parent	Address of respondent parent
Name of birth parent	Address of birth parent

The court makes the following findings and orders at a session of the Superior Court in accordance with the Connecticut General Statutes.

Judgment Adjudicating Parentage

The court finds:

- ☐ A rebuttable presumption that the respondent parent is the parent of the child named above;

And

- ☐ Evidence that sexual intercourse occurred between the birth parent and the respondent parent during the period of time in which the child was conceived.

Order

- ☐ The respondent parent is found to be the parent of the child named above and the court issues a judgment adjudicating parentage.

Or

- ☐ The court enters a judgment that the respondent parent is not the parent of the child named above and removes them from the case and affords them no further standing in this case or in any subsequent proceeding regarding the child.
